DATE: May 4, 2007

SUBJECT: Legal Sufficiency Review of Proposed Mayor's Order Designating Special Event Areas
(AM-06-303)

---

This responds to your May 4, 2007 request that this Office conduct a legal sufficiency review of the above-referenced proposed Mayor's Order (Order).

The Order would designate two areas as special event areas for use as a marketplace for those vendors displaced by the fire at the Eastern Market.

After the incorporation of changes, but without input from the Office of Documents and Administrative Issuances, this Office finds the Order to be legally sufficient. Therefore, you may now proceed to follow the process for securing the Mayor's signature on the Order.

Should you have questions regarding this memorandum, please contact either Stephen B. Lyons, Senior Assistant Attorney General, at 724-5094, or me at 724-5524.
